

EGGstravaganza!

Egg Decorating Contest

Peabody Public Library is having an egg decorating contest! This contest is open to all ages and is a great way to show off your creativity—just bring in your best decorated egg or egg-themed craft.

Bring in your egg by 5:00pm on Sunday, April 9th in order to join the contest. Entries will be publicly displayed and voted on through April 15th, 2017. There will be 1st and 2nd place winners in the age categories of child, young adult, and adult!

Contest Guidelines

- ◆ No real eggs (unless they are blown eggs, but please research safe egg blowing techniques if you decide to use one) You can use plastic eggs, styrofoam, cardboard, wood, etc.
- ◆ You may decorate the egg itself, the inside of the egg, make a diorama or shoebox scene that incorporates eggs, or whatever your imagination comes up with!
- ◆ Be creative! You can use paint, paper, beads, feathers, markers, etc.
- ◆ Your egg/egg craft must be at the library by closing (5:00 pm) on Sunday, April 9th, 2017.
- ◆ Voting is from April 9th to April 15th.
- ◆ One entry per person
- ◆ Do not put your name on your entry, it will be assigned a number.
- ◆ Pick up your egg by April 30th, or it will be discarded.
